

DRAGONERA

ISTRIA, CROATIA

CLIENT: THR

COMPLETION DATE: Un-built

PROJECT SCOPE:

Sean Simms provided conceptual masterplanning and landscape architecture for this project.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION:

Dragonera is a mixed-use development located near the town of Pula on the Istrian Peninsula of Croatia. The site hosts pristine ruins of the Roman governor of Pula. These ruins are to be preserved and will be a focal point of the development. The project includes private villas, retail, a boutique hotel, and spa.
